

Randolph Field Education Foundation
Scholarship Essay & Application Score Sheet
2018-2019 Academic Year

Full name of applicant _____

Please address the following two prompts. (500 total words or less, double spaced)

How has your education at Randolph prepared you for the next chapter of your life?

Exceeds Expectations	Meets Expectations	Does Not Meet Expectations
Essay addresses the prompt in a thoughtful way; response demonstrates depth (5pts.)	Essay addresses the prompt adequately with moderate depth (3pts.)	Essay does not address the prompt, or addresses the prompt very superficially (1pt.)
Essay is very compelling in terms of personal experience and how this will translate into life skills in regard to personal character, growth, reflection, and possibility (5pts.)	Essay is moderately compelling in terms of personal experience and how this will translate into life skills in regard to personal character, growth, reflection, and possibility (3pts.)	Essay is not compelling in terms of personal experience and how this will translate into life skills in regard to personal character, growth, reflection, and possibility (1pt.)
Essay is very well organized (5pts.)	Essay is moderately organized (3pts.)	Essay is not well organized (1pt.)
Minimal to no errors in grammar/syntax (5pts.)	Moderate errors in grammar/syntax (3pts.)	Consistent errors in grammar/syntax (1pt.)
Maximum Possible: 20 points				Points:

Scholarship Essays

Who or what department was instrumental in your success at Randolph High School?
Provide examples/specifics

Exceeds Expectations	Meets Expectations	Does Not Meet Expectations
Essay addresses the prompt in a thoughtful way; response demonstrates depth (5pts.)	Essay addresses the prompt adequately with moderate depth (3pts.)	Essay does not address the prompt, or addresses the prompt very superficially (1pt.)
Essay is very compelling in terms of personal experience and how this will translate into life skills in regard to personal character, growth, reflection, and possibility (5pts.)	Essay is moderately compelling in terms of personal experience and how this will translate into life skills in regard to personal character, growth, reflection, and possibility (3pts.)	Essay is not compelling in terms of personal experience and how this will translate into life skills in regard to personal character, growth, reflection, and possibility (1pt.)
Essay is very well organized (5pts.)	Essay is moderately organized (3pts.)	Essay is not well organized (1pt.)
Minimal to no errors in grammar/syntax (5pts.)	Moderate errors in grammar/syntax (3pts.)	Consistent errors in grammar/syntax (1pt.)
Maximum Possible Essay Points - 40				Points:
Maximum Possible Application Points - 40			Points:

NOTES

The maximum possible points for any applicant is 80.

TOTAL POINTS

--

RFEF Board Mbr: _____