

Randolph Field Education Foundation Guidelines for Grant Applications

Purpose: Teaching Grants are designed to encourage, facilitate, recognize and reward innovative and creative instructional approaches to the accomplishment of program objectives. Randolph Field Education Foundation (RFEF) offers teachers the opportunity to apply for grants that support innovative programs or projects that support higher levels of student learning. The grants must enhance student academic performance and support the objectives, goals, and initiatives of the Campus Improvement Plan.

Persons Eligible to Apply for Grants: Individuals or teams of individuals employed by RFISD who are involved in the instruction of students or related support services benefitting students.

Eligible Proposals: Grants may fund instructional and classroom materials or any activity which support higher levels of student academic achievement.

Awarded Grant Funding: Grants of up to $1,000 maximum for individuals and $2,500 maximum for team teachers. The number of grants awarded will depend on funds available from RFEF.

Selection Criteria:

- * How does the requested grant support the District Goals and the Campus Improvement Plan.
- * How many students or staff will benefit from being awarded this grant.
- * How does the grant request aligns with your particular subject and curriculum guidelines and TEKS.
- * Have the department/chairperson and administrator verify that the monies requested are not in the present 2022-2023 district budget.

Timeline:

- * RFEF will consider grant request on a first come first served basis.

Selection Process:

- * Grant application form may be obtained online through the RFEF website. www.therfef.org (Grant Tab)
- * All applications must be reviewed by a campus administrator for their approval and verified that the money requested is not in the 2022-2023 district budget.
- * Completed applications may be emailed to miller@rfisd.net
- * Grant applications will be reviewed by the RFEF Grant Selection Committee made up of the members who will be appointed by the RFEF Board of Directors.
- * If the grant request is recommended for approval, the administrator and the teacher(s) will be notified within 1 week.
